OUR NEIGHBORS.

John T. Ratcliff has been appointed postmaster at Regan, Pike county.
M. T. Fields has been appointed postmaster at King's Creek, Letcher county.

Prof. T. S. Williams, of Paintsville, has been re-elected principal of the Springville school.
The Johnson county primary held last Saturday resulted in the nomination of John Wheeler for Circuit Clerk.

The six-year-old daughter of Louis M. Ferguson died at Paintsville of blood poison resulting from a splinter in her foot.
Will Hawkes, who lives near Paintsville, has smallpox. A young man named Bahridge, at Whitehouse has the same disease.

John Ward, a successful merchant of River, Johnson county, has begun the erection of a handsome new residence on the site of his old one.
Postmaster M. R. Eaves, of Benton, shot and seriously wounded Tom Jordan, the hotel-keeper, the left breast. The trouble came up over their wives.

Ashland, Ky., May 15.—George Tinsler, aged 35, was found on the C. & O. tracks in the suburbs of the city today with the left side of his head crushed. He lived two hours. He was struck by an early morning train.

Circuit Court is in session at Paintsville. The case of Hays Hall for killing Goodman at Whitehouse was called and continued. An application for bail was refused. The indictment against Hall charges him with wilful murder.

Andy Canterbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Canterbury, of Grayson, was killed Sunday between Front and Coal Grove on an electric car. He with some others was on top of the car doing some repair work, and taking hold of one of the wires that was heavily charged with electricity, was killed instantly.

George Belcher, of Lawrence county, identified Wylie Lateral as having passed his residence Sunday morning, May 13, the morning after safe-blowing here and at Leoni. Wylie claims to have been in front of the time, but he had his face when Belcher entered the jail. This is considered a strong clue.—Grayson Tribune.

Dwingsville, Ky.—Deputy P. S. Marshal Press Jackson of this county has returned from a raid in the mountains, having in custody James H. Hester, Mort, Jones of Rowan county and St. Perry of Morgan. All charged with moonshining. They had a good outfit, which was also destroyed.

Thomas Hackett, a switchman on the Chesapeake & Ohio road, was seriously injured at Fire Brick, Ky., by falling off his train, which at the time of the mishap was traveling at a fast rate of speed. In rounding a sharp curve it is presumed that Hackett lost his balance and fell. He was badly lamed and it is thought he was injured internally.

Howard Bolette and Wilbur Cheatman were burned to death at Campes, Wyoming county, W. Va., and several other companions were so badly injured that they may die. The men were asleep in a two-story log building, and all exit was cut off when the building was discovered in flames. The dead and injured all lived in Wyoming county, and were employed by a Cincinnati lumber company in timber camps.

An Ashland gentleman stated Wednesday that there was no doubt of the correctness of the proposed deal for the purchase of the A. C. & L. property. The parties negotiating for it have secured an option on the entire holdings of the company extending to June 1st, and there is very little doubt but what it will be closed. He declines to say who was back of the deal, but it is undoubtedly either the C. H. & D. or Detroit Southern.—Fronton Register.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered liver.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills
They control and regulate the liver. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.

EAST POINT.

Your correspondent has this week to record the death of two aged persons:
Aunt Emily Burchett, one of the brightest lights of Methodism in this community throughout her long and devoted life, has passed to a higher life. Her gifts of heart and mind were of a very superior order. There are but few left of the old cousins who constituted the second generation of the Aoxier family—the earliest settlers here. Aunt Emily was eighty-one years of age.

Mr. Samuel Groer, another venerable christian was buried last Sunday. He was a member of the M. E. church and was buried by the Masons. He wanted but a few days of eighty when he died. Funeral services by Rev. John Walker of Flat Gap. Prominent among his numerous family is Hon. Wm. Greer of this place.

At this writing we are hourly expecting news of the death of Mr. Worth Stafford, one of the most prominent business men of Paintsville.
Rev. Kazee preached to an appreciative audience at Hager Hill Sunday, and is preaching here this week. He seems to be a sincere pastor, and that means success.

One of the most prominent and influential Republicans of this community told your scribe today that he intends to vote for J. P. Wells for Judge if he is nominated. He says four hundred one of his party have agreed to disregard politics in favor of sobriety and good government. This country seems much aroused on the question of sober cents. Mr. Wells' position dates too far back to admit of question.

We have just been informed that Miss Adams, of Floyd, was jailed at Prestonsburg for improper use of the State Questions in examination. She refuses to tell who furnished the questions, but affirmed that six others had them.

Married, F. P. Blair and Miss Webb. Frank is one of our most industrious young men and we wish him great success and happiness.

You can hear the hum of business here.

It is currently reported here that certain Catlettsburg parties are preparing to establish a wholesale liquor house here. The opposition claim there is no expectation of any wholesale business—that it is to be but a cloak for violating the law and over-riding decent people. C. H. Sloop, son of Congressman Sloop, of Big Stone Gap, H. H. H. Old Va., was looking over the coal fields of Johnson county in company with Mr. May, last week. He is highly pleased with the outlook.

You never heard of any one using Fobey's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

INEZ.

Farmers are very busy planting corn.

A wedding took place in the Baptist church Sunday morning, the contracting parties being a Mr. Huffman and Miss Victoria Parley, Rev. M. Patrick officiating.

Mr. Saumons, the painter, died at his home on the 16th.

The first teachers examination was held here last Friday and Saturday. It is said that 5 out of 11 failed.

Dr. Spears returned Sunday from a trip to Pikeville and Williamson.

Mrs. M. C. Kirk returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Louisa.

Supt. Chatfield and wife of the Peach Orchard Coal Co., visited J. C. Newberry Saturday.

The Presbyterian Sunday School Convention will be held at Pack Bottom Saturday.

Circuit Court will convene June 1st.

Bass Copley visited his father Sunday.

Mrs. L. Dempsey will leave Friday for Barboursville, W. Va., where she will attend the annual commencement of Morris Harvey College.

John Williams, of Paintsville, was here Sunday. He was formerly a teacher of this county but is now in the employ of John C. C. Mayo, surveying coal lands on the waters of Kentucky river. John is a nice young man and his many friends are always glad to have him come.

Chalcidino and wrist bice of the best quality are found at Conley's store.

Nerves.

VESSELE.

Bro. Isaac Fannin failed to fill his appointment at Trinity Sunday. It is reported that he is very sick.

Our Sunday School is certainly doing well. But how could it do otherwise with such a man as Walter Miller for Supt. He is a zealous worker.

Cale Arthur visited friends here Sunday.

Walter Miller and wife visited at Catlettsburg Sunday.

V. B. Shortridge had an old fashioned log rolling last week. He had a large number of hands and he got the logs on his large new ground rolled in good shape.

Mrs. Samantha Shortridge had a carpet-laying last Thursday, and says she is well pleased with her day's work.

James Coffey visited on Catlettsburg Sunday.

Gene Hatcher has gone to New River, where he will work in the coal mines.

Mrs. Tom McDowell is on the sick list.

Mrs. Emory McKinney, who has been dangerously sick, is convalescing.

Joe Miller, who has been in Ashland several months, returned last week. He says there is no place like home.

School teachers are thicker than the candidates were before the primary.

Some of our farmers say they will not plant any corn until it rains. In fact some are not done plowing, and they will have to wait until it rains before they can plow.

It is reported here that Mack Hammond and Maude Howell were married Sunday.

Elissa Webb, of Webbville, makes frequent visits to Little East Fork. He says he would make a good Supt. of Forestry as he is very fond of the woods. Kent.

When you want a pleasant physical Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by A. M. Hughes.

FALLSBURG.

There was about 30 school teachers attended the examination here last week.

Squire Compton held court here last Saturday, and one young man was fined twenty dollars for disturbing religious worship, and a young lady was brought before the Squire charged with shooting John Sausbury's hog, on Hewlett branch, with a revolver, but they failed to prove that she did the shooting. Two young men were with her and she claimed that it was one of them who did the shooting. The hog was worth about fifteen dollars. The young men could not be found.

Five or six teams of horses, mules and wagons loaded with hay and corn passed here yesterday enroute to Whitehouse to work on the railroad.

It is rumored that whiskey will be sold here again soon and if so there will very apt to be more men and hogs shot occasionally.

MARTHA.

Farmers are complaining very much about dry weather just now, as most of them are about ready to hoe corn.

Married, on the 15th, Mardy Collier to Lizzie Gambill. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom, Rev. Grimsley officiating.

The funeral of little Roy Lyon was preached here the 17th by Rev. Ferguson and Grimsley. A large crowd was present.

Mrs. Dr. J. H. Holbrook and little son, a Virgin, are visiting at Dr. Gambill's.

Mrs. Sarah Evans, of Elliott county, was visiting her brother, F. E. Holbrook Saturday and Sunday.

Newton Sparks, who was so low with typhoid fever last winter, is now able to ride around.

Milton Evans, of Prosperity, is calling on the people of this vicinity.

Parish Neore was visiting at J. C. Holbrook's Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Tilda Hogg, of Cains creek, visited at this place recently.

FALLSBURG.

Several of the teachers attended the examination here Friday and Saturday.

Huck Elkins is very low with fever.

Mrs. Lena Menor and little son, of Catlettsburg, have been visiting here.

Mr. Flusher has returned to Parkersburg.

H. S. Deen and family have been visiting Mrs. Frank Conkey.

Bob Cooksey, of Diages, is expected home soon.

Misses Lida and Sallie Dille, of East Liverpool, are at home for a short visit.

Coon Kinner was here one day last week.

Mrs. Georgia Elkins is not any better.

Mrs. Addie Roberts and little daughter, Helena, will leave in a few days for a short visit to Willard.

Rumor says there will be a wedding here soon.

Hazen.

It is understood at Shelbyville that the Peak Guards, of that place, will be ordered to Breckinridge county for service during the special term of Circuit Court beginning May 25.

A very rare accident occurred in Kentucky last Friday. A murderer was hung in Louisville. Another of the same kind was averted in Lexington only by the victim taking poison a short time before.

The Kentucky Press Association has accepted an invitation to hold its annual meeting in Lexington. The date fixed is July 22. The invitation addressed to the Association promises a "warm welcome." An offer of a "cool reception" would not be turned down at that season.

Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin has offered a motion in the Circuit Court of Appeals for a rule to require Circuit Judge Cantrell to attend the bench in the Culeb Powers case. The attorneys for Powers declined to carry the question to the Appellate Court. In doing this Mr. Franklin is simply following out his rule to give the assassins everything they ask that can possibly be granted.

The bank account started from contributions received by Louise Hadley, the chambermaid who lost her position at the Hotel English in Indianapolis for refusing to make the bed occupied by Booker T. Washington, was increased by $1,043.75 Tuesday. The largest contribution yet received was sent to her by the citizens of New Orleans. It was a check on the First National Bank of that city for $1,000. The list of subscribers was not sent, and the letter which accompanied the check congratulated her on the stand she took, and was signed "Southerners."
